WVW

In many ways, each year at Woodrow closely resembles the one preceding it and the one following it. Each September about 1600 Wilsonites return to school. They stand in line after line, tangle with algebraic equations and grammatical rules, cheer the football squad to victory, watch the Wednesday morning parades, attend assemblies, and don colorful journals and dark suits for the senior prom. The years seem alike in many ways, yet each has its own special personality. This edition of the Crusader presents to you the school year 1953-1954 with many of the occurrences that make it at once unique and traditional.

Foreword

James C. Riley

For wise and friendly classroom counsel;
 For the inspiration of an unequalled team spirit;
 For endless hours spent perfecting each play;
 For showing hundreds of young men the necessity for being in top physical condition;
 For teaching sportsmanship as an integral part of the game of football;
 For creating, in 1953, the greatest football squad ever fielded by Woodrow Wilson;
 For these and other qualities possessed by a gentleman and a leader —
 The 1954 CRUSADER salutes you, Head Coach, JIM RILEY.

Surrounded by a sea of helmeted heads, Coach Riley reviews the day's workout schedule with members of the "A" squad.

Dedication

In the classroom, students find Mr. Riley always ready to help untangle a perplexing algebra problem.

This building, itself, strong, yet simple in design, stands as a monument to education in the minds of all Wilsonites.

Hail, Alma Mater

Intricately decorated columns and lamps give beauty to the school's entrance, which might well be called the "Doorway to Knowledge."

Bird's-eye view of the front terrace shows results of careful landscaping and meticulous care.

The year 1953-1954 was unique, for faculty members found a respite from the classroom routine.
Provisions for serving coffee at all hours was instituted by the foods department!

G. L. Ashburn

Principal

G. L. Ashburn – A unique principal for a unique school

For twenty-six years this tall, soft-spoken Texan has ably administered his school. To the students at Woodrow, however, "Pop" Ashburn is more than a dignified educator. He is the voice on the "P.A." every morning, he's the man on the bench at the football games, and he's the proudest man in the reviewing stand during the Wednesday morning parades. Most of all, though, "Pop" is a friendly smile and a helping hand to the student with a perplexing problem.

A familiar figure at all school activities, Mr. Ashburn joins the fun at the senior prom.

This is the way "Pop" counsels his charges "on the air."

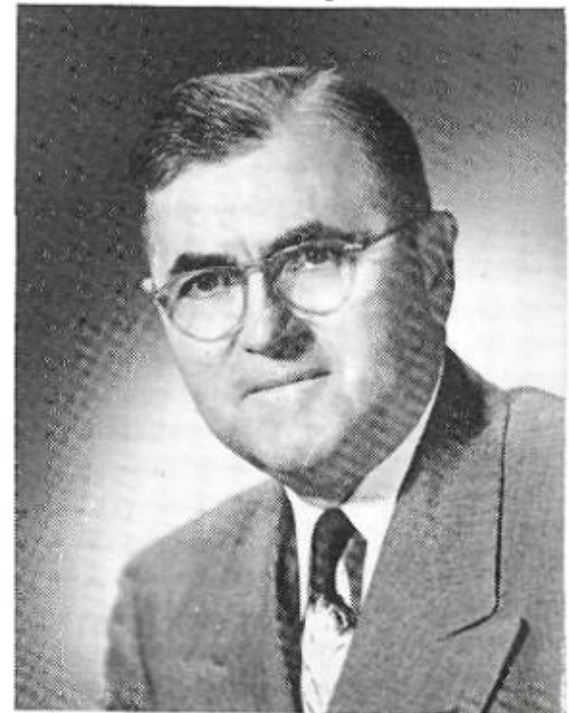

At Senior Assembly Mr. Ashburn is presented an enlarged picture of the 1953 Wildcat football team from emcees Floyd Bloom and David Millican.

Many Hands Make Light Work, As Outstanding Students Help in School Offices

Student assistants in the clinic help Mrs. Caldwell bandage cut fingers, take emperatures, and keep records.

Mrs. Wilkins and counselling office helpers record seniors' credits and scholastic standings.

Miss Downs and Mrs. Crossno take time out to read an interesting letter received in the principal's office.

Athletic office assistants type, file, and do general handiwork for busy coaches.

Selling newspapers and Senior Publications are just two of the many jobs done by business office helpers.

Student workers in the attendance office help Mrs. Francis, Mrs. Rudd, and Mrs. Phillips record absentees and tardies.

NOAH R. FRANKLIN

In Memoriam

Though head custodian at Woodrow Wilson High School for twenty-five years, Noah R. Franklin was not known to many of the student body. The quiet, unobtrusive manner in which he went about his work kept him out of the public eye; as his gentle, friendly co-operation kept him in the love of those who knew him.

His passing last summer left an emptiness about the halls he kept spotless and in the hearts of his friends.

WW

The year 1953-1954 was unique for students interested in international affairs. The American Association for the United Nations offered a tour of Europe as a reward to the most outstanding student in the United Nations classes.

Underclassmen

When he's a 2B he is awed and bewildered by such a big school;
When he's a 2A he is absorbed in History 2 and Geometry 1;
When he's a 3B he can smile gently at the antics of the lowly sophomore;
When he's a 3A he just can't wait till he's a senior;
But whatever his classification he may be sure of one thing:
He's a very important part of that wonderfully indescribable spirit of Woodrow!

"DON'T TAKE MY PENNY"

Senior Play of the Class of January, 1954

Highly important pre-curtain activity is demonstrated here as Director Morgan applies theatrical makeup to Carolyn Roderick's face.

Participants in the "Annual Granbury International Old Maids' Tournament" pose for the cameramen backstage before their performance on the Senior Assembly.

Soothsayers Margie Sharber and Carolyn Wadsworth, without benefit of crystal ball, reveal to the Senior Assembly crowd the fortune of members of the January Class.

Senior Day climaxes . . .

The main event on Senior Day. Mothers of graduates decorate lunch tables with patriotic red and grey.

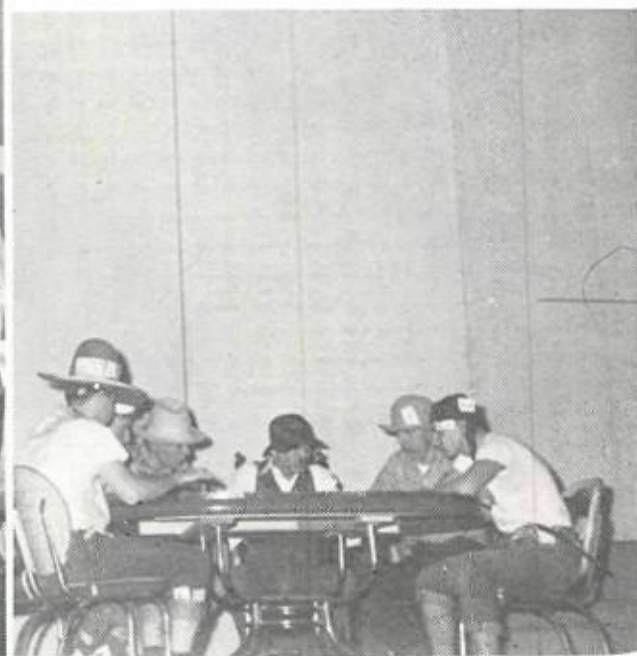

Senior Prom committee members D'Nell Bingham, Kathy Davis, Sydney Johnson, and James Cole put the finishing touches on decorations that turned the gym into an oriental wonderland.

Seniors take their bows after Mr. Ashburn has introduced them as "the prettiest girls and the finest boys I ever saw."

One of the most hilarious skits on senior assembly: Floyd Bloom gives a "play by play" description of the "Annual Granbury International Old Maids' Tournament." Players made their bets with potato chips.

. . three years of expectation

The most important activity on Senior Day. All students become autograph collectors, trying to get as many signatures as possible on their pubs.

Reagan George is busy issuing copies of the class publication "Atomicat" to waiting Seniors.

Christmas at Woodrow

Mr. "Santa Claus" Leavell opens his pack to play all the presents which The Junior Red C. has purchased for Don Stevens, a patient in Dallas Hospital.

Margie Deneen and Pat Hargrove give their approval as Mrs. Brammel, their "favorite chorus teacher," receives a Merry Christmas kiss under the mistletoe.

Seniors Carol Jane Hight, Marilyn Krebs, Pat Tompkins, Charles Clarke, and Lou Thorp collect ribbons and other ornaments to decorate the Student Council's Christmas tree.

Students listen reverently while Joanne Smith, as the Madonna, sings a lullaby to the Christ Child.

"Santa" Leavell and Mr. Morgan show Wilsonites the presents which will be presented to Don Stevens at Woodlawn Hospital.

Kathy Davis perpetuates a tradition at Woodrow Wilson — "A visit from St. Nicholas" is always a favorite on Christmas assemblies.

Standing Room Only—Students watch the assembly from aisles and stairs since Woodrow has more pupils than auditorium seats.

Thursday morning, between nine and ten, is Woodrow students' favorite time. Assemblies are as much a part of Woodrow Wilson High School as the English classes. Student audiences always remember the band concerts, orchestra recitals, Brotherhood speakers, Christmas and Easter programs, and — most memorable of all — the Senior Assembly.

Weekly Assemblies Provide Entertainment and Inspiration

Wilsonites enjoyed the program of Latin American dances presented by members of the Laredo, Texas, High's Pan-American Student Forum. A ballet, "Mexican Fantasy," ended the program.

The newly-formed girls' quartet was an immediate hit with Wilsonites. Joanne Smith, Inell Armstrong, Giovanna Leo, and Sally Sewell presented "Harvest Moon" and "S'sposin."

An all-student talent show proved to be students' favorite assembly. Here Barbara Hall pantomimes the song "I Want to be Evil."

Joanna Jones' "Eccentric" dance provides hilarity on a talent assembly.

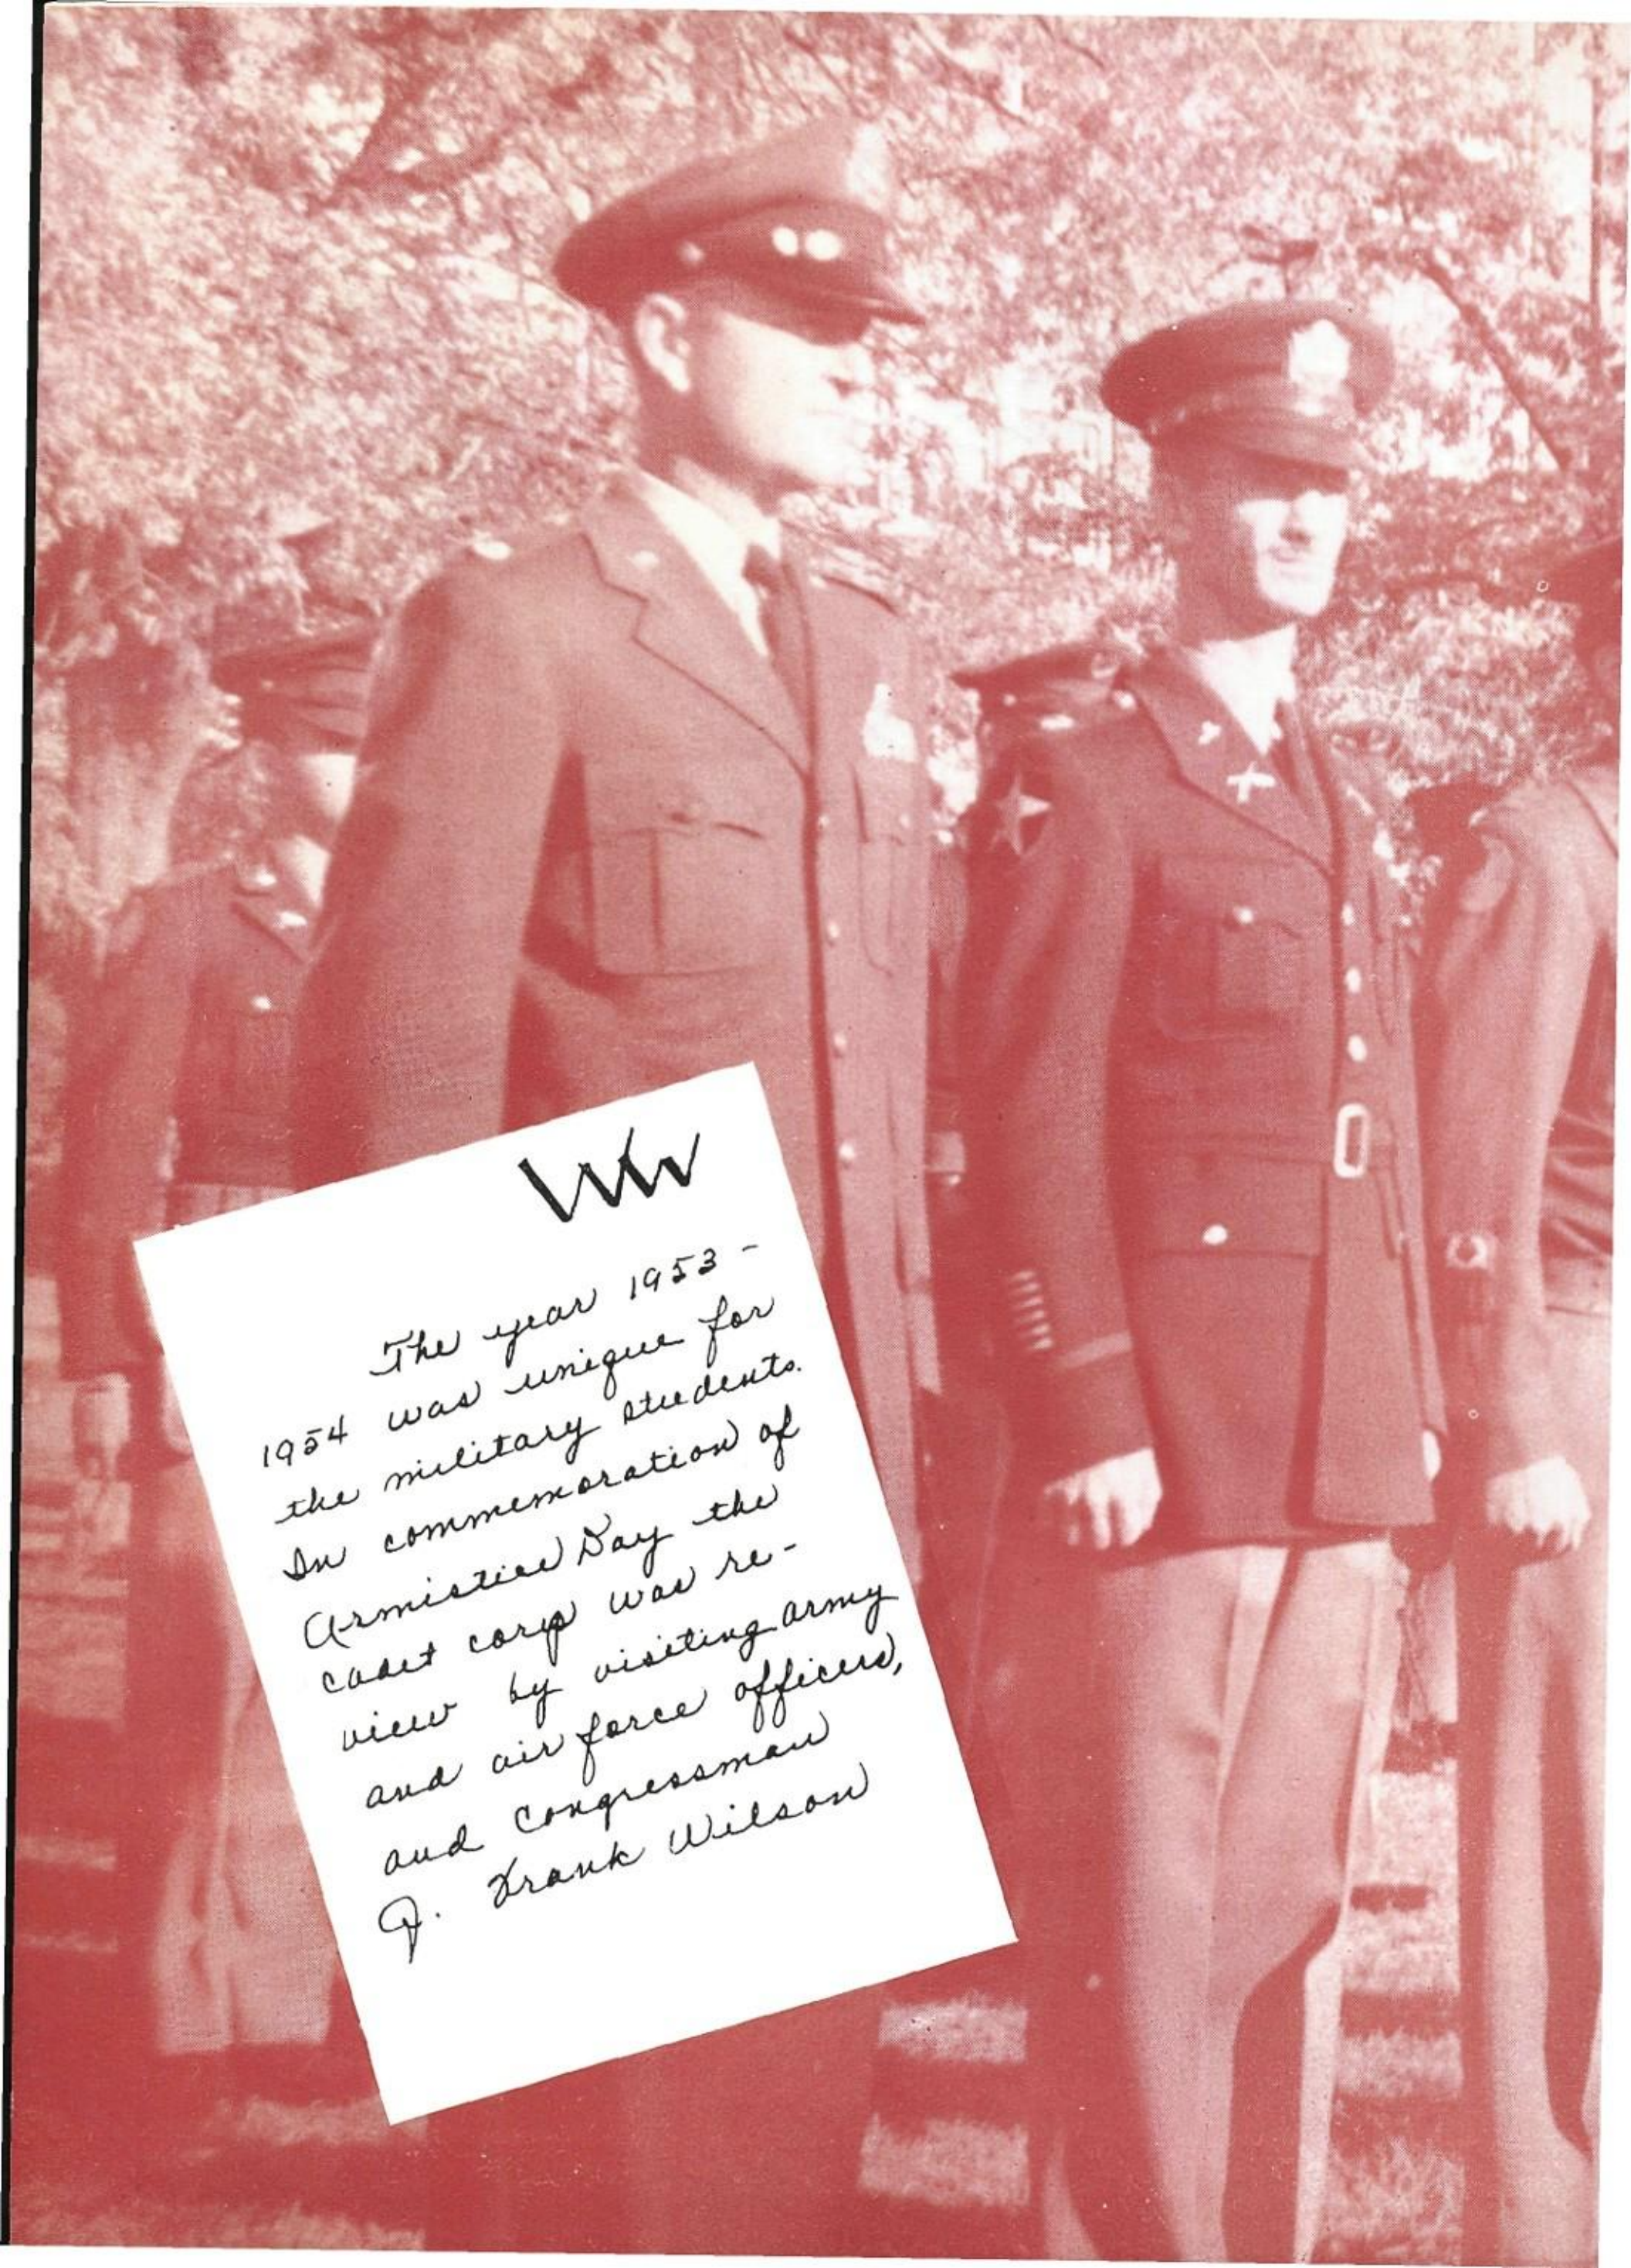

Adding showmanship to their other talents, Phil Beeson and James Zeller take students back to the "roaring twenties" with "Five-Foot-Two."

With ragged costumes providing a rural atmosphere, Pat Tharp and Bill Savage serenade the assembly with "Y'all Come." This was followed by an original number, "Dear Bush."

The Golden Wave Band from Baylor University visited Woodrow, bringing a varied and entertaining program.

Ribbons and Decorations Granted for Efficiency and Achievement

Although everyone is aware of the fact that most cadets at Woodrow Wilson wear an impressive array of ribbons and decorations over the left shirt pocket, very few people know exactly what each award signifies. For those who have wondered about the significance of those ribbons, here are the requirements:
School Efficiency Ribbon — Straight "A" in Military during the entire term.
School Commendation Ribbon — Awarded for the cadet's neatness throughout the term.

Red, White, and Blue Ribbon — Awarded for perfect attendance at parades and proper wearing of the uniform.

Red Drill Ribbon — Participation in competitive events, as crack squad or individual rifle drill. A star indicates a winner in drill competition.

Nile Green Ribbon — Awarded for qualification on the rifle range.

M — designates a Marksman

S — means Sharpshooter

E — indicates an Expert

White Ribbon — Awarded for participation in organized school athletics.

Midnight Blue Ribbon — Awarded for outstanding efficiency.

Wreath — Awarded to members of companies winning efficiency competition.

TRIUMPHANT WILDCATS HOLD

WOODROW 14 ODESSA 14

When the gun sounded ending the first half of the regional playoff, the records showed that the Wildcats had been playing defensive ball all the way. The score was 7 to 0 in favor of Odessa. When the second half started the Wildcat squad took fire scoring twice in a matter of minutes. Odessa's only rally was an 80 yard pass and run that ended in a touchdown. With two more first downs than Woodrow Odessa was chosen to play in the state finals.

In the picture, fleet Wildcat back Bobby Ewell is shown in a hard-to-stop drive through Odessa's secondary.

In the first three quarters of the Woodrow-North Dallas game both squads played determined, bruising football. The score stood North Dallas 13 — Woodrow 7; the clock showed 60 seconds left to play. Then came that story-book finish that no Wildcat will ever forget: With 45 seconds left, Cox crossed the double strip and Ewell added the vital extra point.

WOODROW 13 PASCHAL 7

For 44 minutes Paschal and Woodrow battled each other up and down the field. With 4 minutes to play the score stood 7 to 0. An 81 yard Wildcat drive ended in a TD and extra point. Woodrowites felt that they must be contented with a tie. Then the Wildcats came up with a finish that should be considered classic. With 16 seconds to play Delaporte intercepted a Panther pass, lateraled to Doyle Conine, Conine lateraled to Mason who crossed the double stripe standing up.

WOODROW 21 PASCHAL 19

Bidistrict victory went to Woodrow on December 4, 1953. In a suspense filled game, both teams scored three times. Three conversions by the talented toe of Bobby Ewell made the difference.

COACH CLARE SEAY

Basketball team manager finds that keeping up with cager's equipment is no easy job.

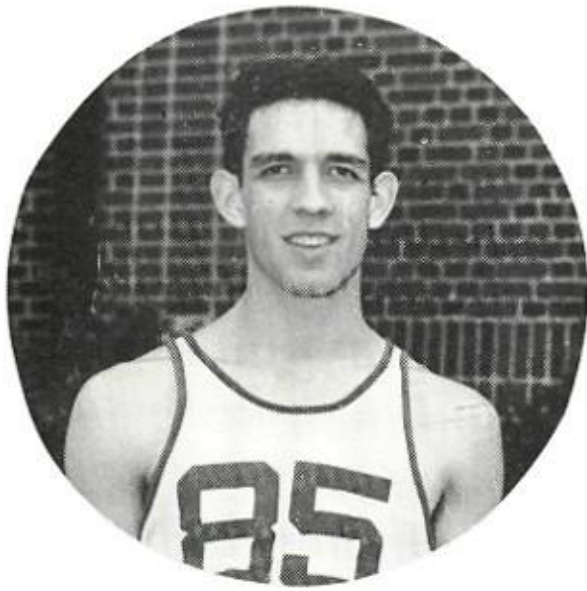

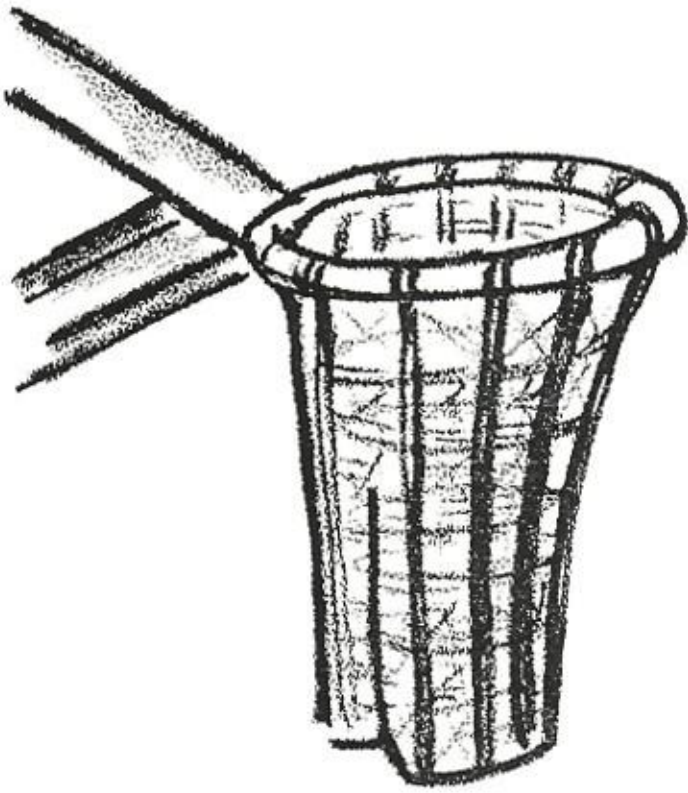

Bob Flournoy, Les Wagner, Ted Amerman

A mixture of sickness, injury, and the indefinable something that causes a team to lose consistently by a narrow margin seems to have jinxed Wildcat cagers this year. However, the team, composed mostly of Juniors, has gained much valuable playing experience and is looking forward to a better showing next year.

Eleven Letter as Wildcat Tennis Team Takes Fifth

Time out for sightseeing. Team members visit Brackenridge Park Zoo during a recent trip to a San Antonio tournament.

Not only did Woodrow's Tennis Team take its fifth consecutive city championship, but members of the team made a good showing in Statewide competition. Woodrow's Girls' Singles, Girls' Doubles, and Boys' Doubles competed in District matches. Boys' Doubles and Girls' Doubles were named state finalists and Girls' Singles went to the Semi-finals. During the recent Second Annual Woodrow Wilson Invitational Tournament the Boys' Doubles, Girls' Doubles, and Girls' Singles were semifinalists.

Student Representatives Responsible for Success of School Projects

The Student Council — Woodrow's oldest and most active student service organization is the "push" behind almost all school projects. Representatives are responsible for selling school publications and tickets to athletic events. The council consists of a representative from each first period class. The biggest project this year was planning and financing a trip for the football team. The Wildcats squad flew to Houston to see the Odessa-Lamar State Championship game.

Jr. Red Cross — Active Humanitarianism

In addition to its annual filling of boxes for underprivileged children overseas, Woodrow Wilson's Junior Red Cross Council has taken an active part in many local projects. The representatives, one from each first period class, have provided tray brighteners for patients in the Veterans Hospital at Lisbon. Special project this year was the adoption of a 17-year-old patient in a Dallas hospital. Don Stevens received a radio and record player from Wilsonites for Christmas.

Skilled Projectionists Make Visual Education Practical

Projectionists Club officers are Carol Parker, E. H. Nail, Pat Daniel and Larry Beckerman.

Seeing is believing! Students unanimously agree that the use of slides and film strips make courses more interesting and subject matter more easily understood. The increased emphasis on visual education has caused the projection club to become one of Woodrow's most outstanding service clubs.

SIX SWEET "P's"

PAINT, PASTEL, PENPOINTS, PAPER, PASTE, POSTERS

Art Club officers are Sandra Davis, vice president, John Sandel, president, and Shannon Howard, secretary.

Students who are artistically inclined have found the Art Service Club, sponsored by Miss Merle Fincher, to be just what they needed. It provides a chance for making new friends and the satisfaction of doing something creative. Making favors for P.T.A. parties, decorations for school dances, posters for school activities, and sometimes painting stage scenery keeps them busy at their weekly meetings held in the Art Room.

P.T.A. Purpose — Better Homes, Better Schools, Better Communities

Any student knows that the Woodrow Parent-Teacher Association is the power behind the school's big dances and all seniors appreciate the activities the association plans for them. However, the P.T.A.'s most important activities receive less notice. To build better homes they emphasize moral and spiritual values. To build better schools they work for mutual understanding between parents and teachers. To build better communities they stress the necessity for civic responsibility.

Presiding at the P.T.A. Bazaar are Mmes. S. G. Wester, C. F. Reynolds, R. D. Coffey, Al Foster, and B. H. Powell, seated.

Officers of the Woodrow Wilson P.T.A. seated left to right are: Mmes. J. C. Skinner, Al M. Foster, E. C. Beyette, B. H. Powell, C. F. Reynolds, and J. C. Burleson. Standing are: Mmes. F. H. Lewis, A. E. Wilemon, R. E. Corder, F. W. Jones, Paul Daniel, P. A. Fontaine, A. L. Leger, Roy W. Hanson, and D. P. Richardson. Mrs. Don P. Newton is not pictured.

Sandra Honey,
We've learned a lot about things + each other, and I like what I've found out about you. I do appreciate your consistent, able help and your ideas. Remember me fondly -

Annual Staff Presents

26th Crusader

Dear Sandra!
This has really been fun! I think the best part of being together on the staff was getting to be such good friends!
I hope we'll be best friends

always love you and Hutchins

*Best friend to a wonderful classmate
+ friend! Dallen*

*And when you say May in May I will be there
Best Cathy*
